

How to become a Certified Eating as Learning Therapy Provider

JOIN OUR COURSE!

EATING AS LEARNING FRAMEWORK

Gain the skills to assess and support children & young people with feeding challenges through a developmental, responsive and evidence-informed approach.

Designed for...

- Speech & Language Therapists
- Occupational Therapists
- Dietitians
- Psychologists & other health professionals working in NHS, community & independent practice.

Booking: www.fed-foundation.org

Contact: admin@fed-foundation.org

JOIN OUR COURSE!

EATING AS LEARNING FRAMEWORK

You'll learn to:

- Understand feeding as a developmental domain.
- Identify challenges across medical, nutritional, skills based and psychosocial domains.
- Apply neuro-affirming, relationship-based therapy principles.
- Coach parents to build confidence and connection at mealtimes.
- How to work with schools and educational settings.
- Design and adapt activities for sensory, scientific, and older learners.
- Benefit from ongoing mentoring and peer learning via our community platform.

Register at www.fed-foundation.org

EATING AS LEARNING FRAMEWORK

Certification Process:

- 18 hours CPD:
- 12 hours self-directed learning (online)
- One day in-person - put theory into practice and completion of case study analysis
- Participate in MDT group, in-person training activities and exercise
- On-going group coaching/mentoring
- Peer support via community membership platform

Cost £495

Option:
Pay in 3 installments

CERTIFIED
E.A.L.
F.E.D Foundation